BEMBRIDGE PARISH COUNCIL

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

1. Introduction

The Parish Council recognises its responsibility to comply with the Data Protection Act 2018. The act regulates the use of personal data; this does not have to be sensitive data; it can be as little as a name and address. It also regulates how information can be collected, handled and used. The Data Protection Act applies to anyone holding information about people electronically or on paper.

2. Your personal data – what is it?

“Personal data” is any information about a living individual which allows them to be identified from that data (for example a name, photographs, videos, email address, or address). Identification can be by the personal data alone or in conjunction with any other personal data. The processing of personal data is governed by legislation relating to personal data including the Data Protection Act 2018 and other local legislation relating to personal data and rights such as the Human Rights Act.

3. Council information

This Privacy Policy is provided to you by Bembridge Parish Council, which is the data controller for your data.

Data may be collected from www.bembridgepc.org.uk

4. Who are the data controllers?

6. Data Protection Law

The council will comply with data protection law. This says that the personal data we hold about you must be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.

- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
- Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- Accurate and kept up to date.
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
- Kept and destroyed securely including ensuring that appropriate technical and security measures are in place to protect your personal data to protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.

7. Usage of your personal data

- To deliver public services including to understand your needs, to provide the services that you request and to understand what we can do for you and inform you of other relevant services
- To confirm your identity to provide some services
- To contact you by post, email, telephone or using social media (e.g. Facebook, Twitter)
- To help us to build up a picture of how we are performing
- To prevent and detect fraud and corruption in the use of public funds and where necessary for the law enforcement functions
- To enable us to meet all legal and statutory obligations and powers including any delegated functions
- To carry out comprehensive safeguarding procedures (including due diligence and complaints handling) in accordance with best safeguarding practice from time to time with the aim of ensuring that all children and adults-at-risk are provided with safe environments and generally as necessary to protect individuals from harm or injury
- To promote the interests of the council
- To maintain our own accounts and records
- To seek your views, opinions or comments
- To notify you of changes to our facilities, services, events and staff, councillors and role holders
- To send you communications which you have requested and that may be of interest to you. These may include information about campaigns, appeals, other new projects or initiatives
- To process relevant financial transactions including grants and payments for goods and services supplied to the council
- To allow the statistical analysis of data so we can plan the provision of services.
- To hold electronic meetings, for example by Zoom or Microsoft Teams
- To record Council meetings or meetings with residents or staff (for example in the latter case in connection with complaints or disciplinary hearings)
- To respond to comments on social media

Our processing may also include the use of CCTV systems for the prevention and prosecution of crime.

8. Legal basis

The council is a public authority and has certain powers and duties. Most of your personal data is processed for compliance with a legal obligation which includes the discharge of the council's statutory functions and powers. Sometimes when exercising these powers or duties it is necessary to process personal data of residents or people using the council's services. We will always take into account your interests and rights. This Data Protection Policy sets out your rights and the council's obligations to you in detail.

We may also process personal data if it is necessary for the performance of a contract with you, or to take steps to enter into a contract. An example of this would be processing your data in connection with the use of sports facilities.

Sometimes the use of your personal data requires your consent. We will first obtain your consent to that use.

9. Sharing your personal data

The council will implement appropriate security measures to protect your personal data. This section of the Data Protection Policy provides information about the third parties with whom the council will share your personal data. These third parties also have an obligation to put in place appropriate security measures and will be responsible to you directly for the manner in which they process and protect your personal data. It is likely that we will need to share your data with some or all of the following (but only where necessary):

- Our agents, suppliers and contractors. For example, we may ask a commercial provider to publish or distribute newsletters on our behalf, or to maintain our database software
- On occasion, other local authorities or not for profit bodies with which we are carrying out joint ventures e.g. in relation to facilities or events for the community.

10. How long do we keep your personal data?

We will keep some records permanently if we are legally required to do so. We may keep some other records for an extended period of time. For example, it is current best practice to keep financial records for a minimum period of 8 years to support HMRC audits or provide tax information. We may have legal obligations to retain some data in connection with our statutory obligations as a public authority. The council is permitted to retain data in order to defend or pursue claims. In some cases the law imposes a time limit for such claims (for example 3 years for personal injury claims or 6 years for contract claims). We will retain some personal data for this purpose as long as we believe it is necessary to be able to defend or pursue a claim. In general, we will endeavour to keep data only for as long as we need it. This means that we will delete it when it is no longer needed.

11. Your rights and your personal data

You have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

When exercising any of the rights listed below, in order to process your request (known as a Data Subject Access Request or DSAR), we may need to verify your identity for your security. In such cases we will need you to respond with proof of your identity before you can exercise these rights.

- a) The right to correct and update the personal data we hold on you
- b) The right to have your personal data erased
- c) The right to object to processing of your personal data or to restrict it to certain purposes only

- d) The right to data portability
- e) The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time for any processing of data to which consent was obtained
- f) The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office. You can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113 or via email <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/email/> or at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.

12. Transfer of Data Abroad

Any personal data transferred to countries or territories outside the European Economic Area ("EEA") will only be placed on systems complying with measures giving equivalent protection of personal rights either through international agreements or contracts approved by the European Union. Our website is also accessible from overseas so on occasion some personal data (for example in a newsletter) may be accessed from overseas.

13. Changes to this policy

We keep this Data Protection Policy under regular review and we will place any updates on www.bembridgepc.org.uk
